

Mr. James C. Hagerly Press Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Jim:

For your information, I am enclosing a copy of my letter to Mr. Lewis A. Wilson concerning the Annual Meeting of Associated Industries of New York State on 26 and 27 September.

I regret very much that I will be unable to attend this most interesting meeting.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Allen:

I understand that again this year you have received an invitation to address the Annual Meeting of Associated Industries of New York State, September 26-27. They have been very anxious to get you for some time and I just wanted you to know that it is a good outfit and it might do some good.

Of course I don't know your schedule.

All my best.

Sincerely,
